(Registration & Continental Breakfast start at 9:30 am)

GO WEST!

Washington County / Western Maryland Research

Co-sponsored with and proceeds benefitting the Washington County Historical Society

Learn about the great resources available for Washington County and other Western Maryland genealogical research. The event will include a tour of the Miller House and the kinship Family Heritage Research Center.

Attendees will also be able to visit the Washington County Free Library, which is a 5 minute walk from the Miller House, and houses the Western Maryland Historical Library.

Presentations:

- Carol Miller-Schultz: "The Gems of kinship Family Heritage Research Center"

Learn about the special collections contained at Washington County's only full time genealogy center. You will become familiar with the family bibles, city directories, church records, rare papers and books, to name a few.

- Jason Malott: "Researching Wills and Estates" -

The Washington County Register of Wills will discuss records available in his office and navigating the Register's records on Family Search. A reference sheet for available Circuit Court records will also be provided.

- Mary Mannix: "Western Maryland Research"

"Western Maryland" today consists of six separate counties. Many would not consider several as "western." Develop an understanding of the region's history, along with the sources and institutions for researching genealogy and local history.

Location:

The Miller House Museum (Home of the Washington County Hist. Soc.)
135 W. Washington St.
Hagerstown, MD 21740

Parking:

Free parking is available on the street and in the Rochester Lot at 31 S. Prospect Street (1/2 block from the event). Limited handicap parking is available behind the Miller House.
